

Singer Sewing Machines
Deering Agent.

Singer Sewing Machines
Deering Agent

THE MONITOR NEWS

VOL. 3

MONITOR, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8th, 1918.

NO. 11

10-20

Mogul AND Titan
Tractors

Order from us NOW for spring delivery

We have a very limited supply of Grain Drills for spring delivery.

Be Wise, Order Now

One Sleigh left at Cost

J. A. Hayes & Sons

We sell the Best

LUMBER
and all kinds of
BUILDING MATERIAL

Stock of Good Coal on hand
LIME BRICK FENCE POSTS
BEAVER LUMBER CO. Ltd.

Fresh & Cured
MEATS

All kinds of Fresh Fish in stock
Hams Bacon Bologna Sausage
Monitor Meat Market

HELP! POLICE!

BENEDICTS MEET THEIR WATERLOO 8-5

It was a veritable 'slaughter of the innocents,' during the first half, the way the singles put it over the married men, at the hockey match on Saturday.

The benedicti ran into hard luck, in the first period, when Thompson had the misfortune to sprain his ankle and was carried off the ice. Towards the end of the game the 'hubbies' came to life, and saved themselves from a whitewash.

A return match will be played, shortly, and no doubt the tables will be turned. The players were subjected to a great deal of 'hot air' from the side lines, but took it all in good part. A few boards, for the spectators to stand on, would have made it more comfortable.

The lineup included the following well known stars:

Married men Thompson, Lander, Christensen, Beasley, Duncan, McCulloch and Raafshuus. Single men Sowell, Radol, Spence, Stranahan, Benoit, Beamer and McRae. A. Todd, referee. M. A. Vanhorn, timer. Jim Hayes and R. Garries, goal judges. The score by quarters was:

Single 3 5 7 8

Married 0 0 3 5

OFF-SIDES

Too much Stranahan.

Beasley raised an 'egg' on his face when he collided with Spence.

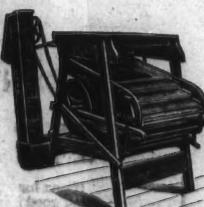

Raafshuus lost a molar when hot-one struck his cheek.

Shoot! Shoot!

It was laughable to hear Stranahan talking to Benoit.

Thompson will be out of the game for the rest of the year.

Too many of the married men adorned the fence.

HERO FANNING MILLS

The next two weeks we are going to clean clean up our stock of fanning mills.

The price will be so low that no Farmer
can afford to borrow his neighbor's mill.

Don't forget to call on us before buying your Farm Machinery for spring.

We know Deering Implements stand The Test of Time.

Quality First
Geo. E. GARRIES
The Deering Agent

Town Council

REVER
W. H. Olson
COUNCILLORS
H. J. McGinn W. G. MacKenzie
W. G. MacKenzie Sec-Treas.
Council meets 1st Monday each month

School Board

J. Hamer Chairman
W. G. MacKenzie Sec-Treas.

CHURCH of ENGLAND.

REV. W. S. WICKENDEN, B.A., L.Th.
PASTOR.
Service every Sunday
at p.m.
A hearty invitation to all services
Books provided.
Boy Scouts, every Tues. & Thurs. at 7
Children's Service, weekly, Thur at 3.15
Choir Practice Fridays at 8.

Sunday Services Co-Operation: Presbyterian and Methodist

Berryfield 11 a.m.
Ione 3 p.m.
Monitor 7.30 p.m.
Monitor Sunday School 2 p.m.
REV. J. E. COLLINS

Kirriemuir Mission Union Services

Kirriemuir 11 a.m. 7.30 p.m.
McRorie's, Section 10-36-3
at 3.30 p.m.,
Rev. W. H. Day, Kirriemuir.

W. G. MacKENZIE

Barrister, Solicitor Notary Public
Money to Loan
MONITOR : ALBERTA

Notary Public Conveyancing
W. S. McCULLOCH
Real Estate Insurance
Money to Loan Monitor Alerts

DR. BUGGINS DENTIST

Specialist in Crown and Bridge Work
Watch for dates when he will be in Monitor.

CRAMER & GARRIES

Are the Auctioneers
to Cry Your Sale
Terms Reasonable
Satisfaction Guaranteed
MONITOR ALTA.

The Monitor News

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY
W. S. McCULLOCH
Editor and PUBLISHER

Subscription Rates

Canada $1.00 per year. Foreign $1.50 per year in advance.

Advertising Rates

For Sale, Lost and Strayed—Not exceeding one inch space, 50¢ for first insertion, or 3 for $1.00.

Transient advertisements—50 cents per inch, in advance.

All changes of advertisements must reach this office by Tuesday noon.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY the 8th, 1918

Note and Comment

Germany is suffering from a chronic attack of autocratism, and about the only thing that will cure her is to have her kaiser amputated.

A novel and practical plan to use school boys to assist in keeping pigs and thus to help in the campaign for increased hog production in Canada, has been taken up by the Board of Trade of Hamilton, Ont.

Conservation means the greatest good of the greatest number and for the longest time. It requires the right thing to be done at the right time in the right manner by the right person and brings the right result.

It must be regarded from a national viewpoint. The individual, through ignorance, does not usually conserve natural resources, hence needs education to discover many new ways of conserving all natural resources, including the human,
to greater degree than now.

Preliminary steps have been taken to curtail the use of cane sugar in the manufacture of candies. Manufacturers have been informed of the necessity for saving such sugar and are now endeavoring to adjust their business to the requirements of the situation.

The money spent for candy in the States and Canada in the past year is double the amount of money needed to keep Belgium supplied with food for a year.

We are continually receiving anonymous communications, for publication, relating to various matters. As we have stated before, the name of the writer must always accompany such articles, but such names
need not necessarily be published.
We also reserve the right to publish such articles as we see fit.

Just when we were basking in Monday's chinook, another cool wave was coming around the corner, which caught us unawares. What little snow fell on Wednesday, drifted, and will stop the autos again.

NEW MAP

What the land seeker desires to know is where the available land is, and how to get it. The returned soldier, who shies at the drudgery of the old office life; the American farmer who desires to place his sons in a new home; the tired business or professional man of Eastern Canada—in search of a new sphere—all turn their eyes towards our western heritage—the Prairie Provinces.

The pre-emption map, now in its 6th edition, is a concise guide containing categorical information about this western land—information easy to absorb by means of the simple, color scheme employed.

How many quarter sections are available in this or that particular township? Plain red figures tell the number.

What is the nearest land agency? A large circle in green marks the location.

What is the boundary of the pre-emption and purchased homestead tract? This area is indicated by a green cross-notch outline, while a small ruling in green shows the land within the pre-emption tract to which the provisions of the Act do not apply.

Other features such as railways, surveyed townships, forest and Indian reserves, Dominion Parks, etc., are also covered by this useful publication.

This map is published by the Department of the Interior
from whom copies may be obtained.

Copies of the various maps published by the Government, can be seen at the News office.

Rev. W. S. Wickenden, B. A.
will conduct Divine Service (D.
V.) on Sunday next, as follows:
Monitor 3 p. m.

Here are the Self Starters
— innocent looking typewriter
keys — that force an automatic speed gain of 15% to 25% on ordinary correspondence.
A built-in part of the new

SELF STARTING REMINGTON TYPEWRITER

Grand Prize—Panama-Pacific Exposition

You must see this time saving invention for yourself. Let us demonstrate it in your office—on your own work, or send for literature today.
Write, or 'phone

REMINGTON TYPEWRITER COMPANY

(LIMITED)

110-6th, Ave. W., Odd Fellows' Bldg., Calgary, Alta.

Star Restaurant

Charlie Yee Prop.

Board and Rooms

Meals at all Hours

Fruit, Cigars and Soft Drinks

Mail & Train Service

Outgoing Mail
To points West and East
daily, except Sunday.

Incoming Mail
From the East and West
daily, except Sunday.

Westbound train leaves daily,
except Sunday, at 8.01 a. m.
Eastbound train leaves daily,
except Sunday, at 8.16 p. m.

J. HANSON Contractor and builder.

Plans and Specifications
Furnished.

All Work Guaranteed.

MONITOR : ALTA.

REMOVAL

J. Hamer has moved his stock to the new building across from the Butcher Shop.

A full line of Harness Saddles Blankets
Collars Sleigh Bells Pullovers
Gloves Suitcases Fancy Leather
Goods Harness Hardware
Hames Chains

Anything in the Saddlery line
We have it

J. HAMER

The Monitor News Job Dept.

IF ITS ANY KIND OF PRINTING
WE CAN DO IT

At Home Cards
Bills of Fare
Ball Programs
Bill Heads
Blotters
Booklets
By-Laws
Envelopes
Letter Heads
Milk Tickets
Collecting Notices
Pamphlets
Posters
Receipts
Wedding Stationery

Artistic Job Printing our Specialty.

INSURANCE

Fire, Accident, Sickness
Automobile.

Agent for C. P. R. and Hudsons Bay
LANDS

Town lots Real Estate
W. S. McCULLOCH MONITOR

You Look As You Feel

You know well enough when your liver is loafing.

CONSTIPATION

A BSENCE of Iron in the Blood is the reason for many colorless faces but

CARTER'S IRON PILLS will greatly help most pale-faced people.

A Popular Act

The country will applaud the government's course in this matter. A country which has just expressed by its vote in a general election its sweeping recognition of the need for devoting the highest possible degree of national energy to the work it can have of its own. The government action which diverts money and labor from the liquor industry and turns them into healthful and productive channels. The prohibition that will help Canada in health, in morals, in pocket, in ability to fight, is the kind that prohibits. To forbid importation now and manufacture soon is to replace talk by action.—St. John Telegraph.

WOMEN ARE NEEDED

TO HELP IN WAR

Women can be usefully employed in nursing the wounded, in making up the soldiers' kits, and a thousand other ways. Many Canadian women are weak, pale or anemic from woman's ill. For young girls just entering womanhood, for women at the critical time; nursing mothers and every woman who is "run down," tired or over-worked—Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a special, safe and certain help. It can now be had in tablet form, procurable at any good drug store, or send Dr. Pierce, Invadis' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package. Branch office, Bridgeport, Ont.

St. Catharines, Ont.—"I have taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription during pregnancy when I was especially in need of a tonic and it benefited me greatly. I always take pleasure in recommending 'Prescription' to young mothers because I know it will never fail to help them."—Mrs. J. H. FAUCETTE, 8 Beach St.

Stratford, Ont.—"I do think Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is one of the best medicines I have ever known for the ailments of women. I had for quite a long time been 'run down,' weak and nervous. I doctored, but nothing seemed to help. Then I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine gave me such wonderful relief that I am glad to recommend it to others."—Mrs. A. GOODWIN, 60 Brant St.

Glads—Jack is horrid! When we were out tonight a little boy flew right into my mouth and I asked him if he was a right glady. Crying—What did he say it meant? Gladys—That I should keep my mouth shut.—St. Louis Republican.

"Would you call Mrs. Gowit a good conversationalist?" "Yes and no. She makes you think of a lot of things to say but she does so incessantly you don't get a chance to say them."—Boston Transcript.

CUTICURA HEALS ECZEMA ON BABY

Spread Covering Body. Awful Disfigurement. Itched and Burned. Had to Scratch.

"My baby was troubled with eczema which began on her face and spread all over her body. It was a rash of very sore and inflamed causing awful disfigurement. The rash itched and burned, making her scratch terribly and she was cross.

Soap and Glycerine. Baby was healed with six cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) Mrs. Henry Richard, Murray Harbor, P. E. I., April 2, 1914.

You may rely on Cuticura to care for your skin, scalp, hair and hands.

For Free Sample Each by Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. A Boston, U. S. A." Sold everywhere.

Communal Cooking is Urged

New Plan Would Result in Saving of Coal, Food and Labor

How long shall we have to wait before communal cooking becomes common in every class of society? The need of some system of catering on these lines constitutes the felt want of the moment.

In residential neighborhoods in every town, in every village throughout the length and breadth of the land, there is an opening for supply kitchens worked on really practical lines. In these kitchens we can cook food of the plain and wholesome variety could be bought at reasonable prices—all ready to serve, or merely requiring to be heated up.

Not only would such a systematic help to solve the servant difficulty, but it would mean an enormous saving in coal, in labor and money—to say nothing of lessening the waste of food that is so flagrant a scandal in hundreds of homes today, while at the same time it would set free numbers of women war workers.—From the London Chronicle.

LISTLESS, PEEVISH GIRLS

When a girl in her teens becomes peevish, listless, and dull; when nothing seems to interest her and dainties may not tempt her appetite you may be certain that she needs a good bath than her system provided with. Before long her pallid cheeks, frequent headaches, and breathlessness and heart palpitation will confirm that she is anaemic. Many mothers as the result of their own girlhood experience can promptly recognize the condition and the wise mother does not wait for the trouble to develop further, but at once gives her daughter a course with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which renew the blood supply and banish all bodily trouble.

Out of their own experience thousands of mothers know that anaemia is the sure road to worse ills. They know the difference that good red blood makes in the development of womanly health. Every little dauber, every girl, every woman, needs the slightest exertion by the anaemic girl, every pain she suffers in her back and limbs are reproaches if you have not taken the best steps to give your weak girl new blood; and the only sure way to do so is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

New, rich, red blood is infused into the system by every dose of these pills. From this new rich blood springs good health, an increased appetite, new energy, high spirits and perfect womanly development. Give your daughter Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and take them daily and you will know how promptly their influence is felt in better health.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Wemyss is an Aristocrat

But Is Also Said to Be a Fighter and Knows His Men

Speaking of the new first lord of the admiralty, Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, it may be well to make it easy for him to be known by explaining that his name is pronounced "Wen-iss." Wemyss became much less formidable when that fact is known. He has a distinct reputation as a fighter of the first order throughout the British navy. He was born in 1864.

He took the foremost part in the Jutland battle and acquitted himself admirably. He comes of one of the old conservative families of England, being a son of the late J. H. Erskine Wemyss, of Wemyss Castle, Fife. He entered the navy in 1877, was made a midshipman in 1881, a second lieutenant in 1889 and captain in 1901. He was commander of the Royal Naval Barracks in 1911 and 1912, rear admiral of the second battle squadron in 1912 and 1913 and was an extra equerry to the king.

His most important appointment represents the oil aristocratic element. As second sea lord he was responsible chiefly for the appointment of the personnel of the navy, and he was undoubtedly taken as first assistant to Admiral Jellicoe because of his knowledge of men and his reputation as a fighter.

Poser for the Slacker

World Must Fight the Barbarians for the Sake of Peace

An applicant for exemption from military service, according to an estimated contemporary, based his claim on the belief that only barbarians and Huns should fight. The belief is shared, no doubt, by a good many others, and it would be a pleasant relief for peacefully disposed people if all the fighting could be restricted to the Huns and the barbarians. But if the Huns and the barbarians refuse to restrict the fighting to themselves, what then? Is the rest of the world to become barbarian rather than fight the barbarians? Many of those, perhaps the great mass of them, who fight the Huns and the barbarian today have no love for fighting for its own sake, but they love the cause for which they are fighting, and they have no doubt as to the necessity for fighting.—Woodstock Sentinel-Review.

Minard's Liniment Cures Colds, etc.

Hokus—"So he's in the diplomatic service, eh? Well, he is evidently fitted for it."

Hokus—"He used to be stage manager of an amateur dramatic club."—Life.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS

How to loosen a tender corn or callus so it will not hurt without pain

Let folks step on your feet hereafter; wear shoes a size smaller if you like, for corn will never again send electric sparks of pain through you, according to this Cincinnati authority.

He says that a few drops of a drug called freezeon, applied directly upon a tender, aching corn, instantly relieves soreness, and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts right out.

This drug dries at once and simply shrivels up the corn or callus without even irritating the surrounding tissue.

A small bottle of freezeon obtained at any drug store will cost very little but will positively remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

If your druggist hasn't stocked this new drug yet, tell him to get a small bottle of freezeon for you from his wholesale drug house.

How Modern Wars are Won

Enemy Defeated Through People Becoming Demoralized

General von Ludendorff, who is recognized as the brains of the German government and the most influential director of its activities, emphasized his point of view in his remark the other day on the special and distinctive nature of modern war. He said that it is a war not of armies but of peoples; that there are no decisive battles in the old sense, when the issue of a campaign might be decided by the result of a single engagement, as when Napoleon crushed the Prussians at Jena, or as when he was himself crushed by the coalition at Waterloo. Nowadays the effect of battles is indirect, and an enemy people is defeated through being demoralized rather than through the consequence of an unsuccessful and disastrous conflict. From this point of view he insisted that the revolution in Russia must not be regarded as a mere piece of luck for the central powers, but as the natural outcome of military operations from which the Russian people had seriously suffered.—Philadelphia Enquirer.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Worms in Children, if not Attended to, cause convulsions, and often death. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will protect the children from these distressing afflictions.

Alfred Noyes, the English poet, distinguished as a bitter satirist, has incurred adverse criticism of his poetry. "I attribute these criticisms to ignorance," he said. "These critics are like the chap who was asked by his little son what hexameters were. 'Why,' they said, 'it's old, reproachful, 'twelve,' you old fool.' I am willing to know that a hexameter is a public automobile."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

"Flabby always boasted that when he married he would never live with his wife's people, and that is exactly what he is doing!"

"Not exactly; he isn't living with them—he's living on them."—Balto-

more American.

A Power of Its Own.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has a subtle power of its own that other oils cannot pretend to, though they are all oil products. All who have used it know its keep and it keep it by them as the most valuable liniment available. Its uses are innumerable and for many years it has been prized as the leading liniment for man and beast.

A New Gas at the Front

Australian Soldier Thought He Had Discovered a New Device of the Germans

The average Australian had never seen snow before he came to this part of the globe, and had no idea how it fell or what it was like. I am going to relate an incident which happened at the time the Germans were posterizing with new gases. You may not believe the following, but it's a fact:

It was at dead of night; everything was still, wonderfully still excepting for the report of some gun in the distance. The landscape was illumined by the moon, people peeping from a gap in the cloudy sky. It was bitterly cold, and the boys were rubbing their numb hands, sniffing through their frozen noses.

"Gas gas!" shouted Private Newland. "It's puttin' over some stinkin' gas look out!"

We all slipped on our helmets, and after the excitement was over, we discovered it wasn't gas at all—it had only just started to snow.

Believe it or not, it actually happened.—Correspondent from the front.

ARE YOU SATISFIED

With your work, with your business?

Is there promotion ahead of you?

Men of energy, with salesmanship ability will find it to their advantage to write to—
THE EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE CO., Toronto

Boil It!

The beautiful aroma of the finest cocoa beans is brought out by boiling Cowan's Perfection Cocoa from three to four minutes.

32,000 Copies Sold First Week Off the Press

"The Finished Mystery"

EXPLAINS EVERY VERSE OF REVELATION AND EZEKIEL

It Foretold the Pope's Peace Plan and Its Temporary Success

608 Pages. Embossed Cloth. NOW ONLY 60c, Postpaid

Address—

BIBLE STUDY CLUB BOX 1622 WINNIPEG

THE WINTER SEASON

suggests a Billiard Table. Why not buy one for the young ones? It is a good investment. We have a toy that is a dining, library or kitchen table.

Dept. C-102 Adelaide St. W. Toronto

SAMUEL MAY & CO.

Established 1852

Worms in children, if not attended to, cause convulsions, and often death. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator will protect the children from these distressing afflictions.

Alfred Noyes, the English poet, distinguished as a bitter satirist, has incurred adverse criticism of his poetry. "I attribute these criticisms to ignorance," he said. "These critics are like the chap who was asked by his little son what hexameters were. 'Why,' they said, 'it's old, reproachful, 'twelve,' you old fool.' I am willing to know that a hexameter is a public automobile."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Minard's Liniment Cures Diphtheria.

"Flabby always boasted that when he married he would never live with his wife's people, and that is exactly what he is doing!"

"Not exactly; he isn't living with them—he's living on them."—Bal-

more American.

A Straight Tip

If Canada and the United States sent to Great Britain so that not an atom of it should be used for the production of liquor. Let Britons use their home-grown grain for the making of intoxicants if they please; let them not use ours. This question will satisfy the people of Canada before Canada, for imperial benefit will consent to the introduction of food cards.—Hamilton Spectator.

MONEY ORDERS

Send a Dominion Express Money Order. They are payable everywhere.

A New Gas at the Front

Australian Soldier Thought He Had Discovered a New Device of the Germans

The average Australian had never seen snow before he came to this part of the globe, and had no idea how it fell or what it was like. I am going to relate an incident which happened at the time the Germans were posterizing with new gases. You may not believe the following, but it's a fact:

It was at dead of night; everything was still, wonderfully still excepting for the report of some gun in the distance. The landscape was illumined by the moon, people peeping from a gap in the cloudy sky. It was bitterly cold, and the boys were rubbing their numb hands, sniffing through their frozen noses.

"Gas gas!" shouted Private Newland. "It's puttin' over some stinkin' gas look out!"

We all slipped on our helmets, and after the excitement was over, we discovered it wasn't gas at all—it had only just started to snow.

Believe it or not, it actually happened.—Correspondent from the front.

Rheumatism Yields

Only rheumatic sufferers

know the agony of its darting

pains, aching joints or twisting cords. But some few have not known that

SCOTT'S

EMULSION

has been correcting this trouble

when other treatments have utterly failed.

Scott's is essentially blood-food

in such rich, concentrated form

that its oil gets into the blood to alleviate this stubborn

malady. Get a bottle of

Scott's Emulsion and advise an ailing friend.

Scott & Sons, Toronto, Ont.

2-23 THE FA

W. M. U. 114

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

FOR ALL KIDNEY DISEASES

RHEUMATISM, RHEUMATIC DISEASES

BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, HYPERTENSION

R. 23 THE FA

Transient Ads.

STRAYED

A dark red cow and a two year old heifer with white face. Both branded WL on flank. Reward for information leading to recovery.

H. McCarron

HORSES FOR SALE

Forty head of horses for sale, all good, sound work horses. Apply to T. Martin Monitor Section 2-36-4

OATS FOR SALE

A quantity of feed oats for sale. Apply to Alberta Pacific Grain Co. M. A. Vanhorn, Agent. 44

ESTRAY

On the premises of R. N. Fleming Sec. 35-33-4, a mouse colored bull, dehorned, white spot on forehead.

SEED OATS

A quantity of Seed Oats for sale. Apply to J. J. Rutledge 3 miles north of town. Sec. 30-35-4.

LOST

A two year old Shorthorn Bull, red with small white spot on face and side, unbranded, with horns. Should have ear tag. Suitable reward for information.

Poynter & Sons Sec. 11-27-5

FOR SALE

Hot Blast Heater, for sale, 18 inch fire pot, full brick lined. G. A. Spencer Box 74 Monitor

ESTRAY

On the premises of H. L. Crisp, S. 12-35-5, one red bow, white face, dehorned, branded on left hip. Calf at foot.

LOST

A 2 year old steer, dehorned, branded on the left shoulder.

Notify M. Taillefer

Section 20-35-2.

1 black colt, 2 years old, white spot on forehead, lame in 1 hind leg. 1 bay mare, 12 years old, 1000 lbs. 1 dark filly, 2 years old. 1 bay mare and colt, both lame in hind legs.

Notify M. Vasileff Sec. 27-35-3 Monitor

FOR SALE

A pure bred, Registered, Holstein Cow for sale, has just calved. Will sell both, cheap.

K. G. Wiles 31-34-4 Monitor

RED CROSS

Regular meeting held Feb. 1st at the home Mrs. Davis. The following work was handed in: Mrs. Evans, 1 pair Socks; Mrs. Vosburgh, 1; Mrs. Tarr, 1; and Mrs. Davis, 2 many-tailed Bandages. Work done at meeting: 8 flannel binders, 5 many-tailed bandages, 10 towels, 6 hospital handkerchiefs. Work sent to headquarters: 2 T bandages, 6 hospital handkerchiefs, 10 towels, 14 flannel binders, 8 pairs socks, 12 many-tailed bandages. Members present, 15.

SEED OATS

A copy of the following letter has been sent to all Alberta Pacific elevator agents.

As the Government has virtually commandeered all oats suitable for seed, we will be unable to supply you with oats of this class.

If oats for seed purposes are scarce in your locality, we wish you to get in touch with the various farmers and advise them that we will be unable to supply them, and urge upon them the necessity of getting together and ordering in car lots so as to save freight and bag expenses. This could be handled by clubbing together, or through their local U. F. A., or similar organization. If shipped by local freight, in sacks (which are now 28 cents each) the expense would be almost prohibitive. In ordering thru the Seed Commissioner, seed certificate will be attached to invoice, so purchaser will have guaranteed seed.

We understand there is a shortage of oats suitable for seed and we think you should place the matter before the farmers at once, in the interest of the Nation as well as their own.

For further particulars, prices etc., have them communicate with

Mr. A. E. Wilson
Seed Commissioner,
Regina, Sask.

STONELAW U. F. A.

Stonelaw Local meets 1st and 3rd Friday of each month.

At the regular meeting, last Friday at Minor School, R. P. Thompson, manager of the local Bank, gave an excellent address on "Canada's Banking System," which was heartily enjoyed by the members.

A resolution was passed to the effect that the Union would stand security for any of its members who were unable to obtain the money needed to pay for seed grain.

E. Michener, Red Deer, and W. J. Harmer, Edmonton, are the new Senators for Alberta.

A large military hospital will be built at Saree, near the city of Calgary.

The miners are still out on strike, at the Drumheller mines.

A strong detachment of the Mounted Police are guarding the property, armed with a machine gun.

The threatened strike of the C. P. R. maintenance of way employees will be settled by arbitration.

The Eastern States are still suffering from the cold weather and a coal shortage.

HONOR ROLL
OF
MONITOR VOLUNTEERS

Names of those who enlisted from this district:

Anderson Roy
Beaton Wait
Beesley J. O.
Brooklesby J. W.
Bryant R. T.
Blackley C. E.
Bishop Jack
Crisp Charley
Collier
Clark R.
Connah J. A.
Cutts George
Cross Jack
Connell Dave
Connell Ralph
Cunningham L. C.
Cresswell J.
Deacon Frank
Deacon Albert
Deacon Fred
Deacon F.
Edwards Bob
Filepachak Carl
Ford J. L. O.
Fraser S.
Fisher Ivan *Gardner Cecil W.
Gillespie J.
Goodman Carl
Greenbank R. *Harrison R. J. *Hyland
Harvey J.
Herity Fred
Henessey A.
Hayes Lyle
Harrison C. W.
Hermison C.
Johnson Harvey
Johnson Harry S.
Kay Jeff. W.
King D. S.
LuDuke Jas.
Livingston Robert
Lyons Fred
McDonald Hugh
Martin Thomas
McNish J. T.
McCulloch Jas. A.
McTavish Jack
McNair Andy
Moore J. W.
Munson John
Mitts J.
Noad J. S.
Osborne John
Palmer Bill *Palmer George
Purdy Walter *Piper F. H.
Plumb Martin
Ryckman Gilbert
Robson S.
Rogers N. R.
Spencer W. A.
Shannon Alvin
Smith Alex
Stewart (Pat) Claude
Smith Marion
Sinclair Archie
Tkachko Jack
Walker A. E.
Wright J. L.
Whitney Phillip
Whitney George
Walker R. L.

W. S. McCULLOCH
Issuer of Marriage Licenses
MONITOR: ALTA.

Pioneer Livery and Feed Stable

The Best Livery and Feed Stable
in the Village

Draying of all classes done at Moderate Prices.

Mack MacDonald, : : Prop.

Monitor Laundry

First Class Work
Guaranteed

Sam Lee : Jim Woo

Your Stationery

is your silent representative
If you sell fine goods that are up-to-date in style and of superior quality it ought to be reflected in your printing.
We produce the kind
that you will not be ashamed
to have represent you.
That is the only kind it pays to send out. Send your orders to this office.

There's Something Here For

YOU

MERCHANTS --

We are able to meet your needs in all lines
of Commercial Stationery requirements, and will be pleased to quote you prices on

Letterheads

Envelopes

Billheads

Noteheads

Loose Leaf Ledger

Circulars

Note Forms

Receipts

Statements

Circulars

Business Cards

Shipping Tags

GENERAL PRINTING

Posters

Dodgers

Visiting Cards

Menus

Programs

Pamphlets

Display Cards

Tickets

Rush Orders Promptly Attended To Prices Reasonable and Satisfaction Guaranteed

RECORDS OF CANADIAN VALOR ON THE WESTERN BATTLE FRONT

EXPLOITS OF ARTILLERY HAVE BEEN SPLENDID

Correspondent Takes a Trip Through the Battle-Stricken Country
And Everywhere Finds Some Record or Bit of History in Which Dominion Troops have Played Important Part

Everyone one goes in this battle-stricken country there seems to be some record of Canadian valor. No village in the north from Amiens to the salient but recognized the Canadian badge and greets it in friendly spirit. For our men are well liked—and with reason. The cheery reception which things Canadians receive everywhere is perhaps the most complete answer to that stupid story—sleumon heard now—that the men of the Maple Leaf lack discipline. On the contrary, the Canadian corps pride itself on its discipline, and he who criticizes this today is not well informed.

"Give me such men as the Canadians and I would go anywhere," was the statement of a German commander captured at Passchendaele. The tribute was merited for the story of Canadian valor is as great as any throughout this long battle area. From Scottish Wood, St. Julien and the old places that mark the historic record of the first desperate Canadian engagement to Passchendaele, nearly three years of bitter fighting have marked the country with the exploits of the Dominion. Canada rejoiced when the Canadian Guards moved forward against Bellevue farm and the Passchendaele ridge swept beyond the old fighting ground of April 22, 1915, and won back from the enemy the only bit of Canadian ground he had succeeded in holding. So did the Canadian regiments, after days of war-worn and old in service, who studied old maps and went forward to where some familiar spot marked a billet before German gas left our left flanks in the air, and Canada with its lines of almost untried troops beat the way to Calais, and held off the enemy in days and nights of bitter fighting. It was a striking story those veterans told of Ypres and Wielje, Poperinghe and the salient as it was when they first knew it. They told, too, of the great fighting of our infantry—which you know—and of the splendid work of our artillery—which you do not know. For, strangely little has been written of the gunners who fought their guns for twenty-one days and then moved on to Givenchy for more fighting. Some of the stories were told in full, and you will learn how the artillery—their guns in advance of the infantry—lost over 50 per cent. of their casualties from gunsho wounds, but never lost a gun. But that is a story for the historian.

Now Ypres is a mere shell beyond words; while Wielje is only a name, not even the vestige of a house remaining. An altogether sinister place, the salient seems brooding over its dead—desolate. You leave the wreck that was the Cloth Hall for Wielje, St. Feat, and so on to Bellevue Spur or the ridge and the wreck of what was Passchendaele is the visible expression of the spirit of the and—ruin and desolation. You return—lunching perhaps with Canadian mess in what seems to be a deep dugout in the world. You may have fish for dinner—fish caught perhaps in the pools that border the trench walk. The air is very close. The pumps must be kept going or you will Wade in water over the boot. Electric light brightens the darkness. Above, shells are falling. It is a "blight" spot, but you are waiting and you return to Ypres. From there a road goes out from the Lille gate. It leads to historic fighting grounds. Here is Zillebeke lake and here the bluff. Over there are the Canadian wood, Maple Copse, Observatory Ridge, hill 60, and so on to Hill 60. Givenchy is not far away. Away you go again to Bethune, passing perhaps a spot which they will tell you was once first division headquarters. On past Bethune to ruined Arras, the road runs smooth to Bapaume. Bapaume is a ruined town, and so on to the south and east towards Albert and the region that you are in is that of Courcellette and Moquet Farm, the Sugar Refinery, Regina trench. It is night when you return to your quarters. Next morning you visit Hill 70 and Vimy Ridge, and so on down upon Lysa from some observation post in the present fighting line.

The land you have seen is the land of empire of Britain and Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Canada. But more particularly you have visited the land of Canada and the place where some Canadian Canadian graves in battle cemeteries or scattered by the way have told you something of the heroic battle story of the Dominion.—Staff Correspondent of the Canadian Press.

Singer (at the front gate)—Do you think your mother could let me have some eggs?"

"Small boy—no, ma'am. Our chickens have all gone dry."

Destruction Goes On

Historic Padua Bombed From Air
by the Austrians

Padua, which has suffered air bombardment from Austria, is the capital city of the province of Venetia, Italy. It is situated twenty-two miles by rail west of northward from Venice. It is claimed to be the oldest city in north Italy, and its inhabitants profess to be the descendants of the Trojans. Padua, in common with northeastern Italy, suffered severely from the invasion of the Huns and Avars in the year 452. The city at various times periods came under the rule of the Lombards and the Franks. The city shrank from the Austrian yoke in 1806, when Venetia became part of the United Kingdom of Italy.

Padua is especially noted for its literary associations. Among the objects of interest in the city is Dante's house, in front of which is an ancient tomb said to contain the ashes of the Trojan Antenor, who is said to have founded the city. Levy, the Roman historian, and Mantegna, the poet, were born in this ancient city. The famous painters—Giotto, Donatello and Fra Filippo Lippi—did much of their artistic work there. Shakespeare makes reference to the city in several of his plays, and the scene of one of his comedies, "The Taming of the Shrew," is in Padua.

The city boasts some fine historical buildings, including a cathedral and building dating from the twelfth century. It possesses monuments to the poets Petrarch and Dante, also to the Cardinal of Gadda. The university of Padua is one of the oldest and most famous in Europe. To this institution is attached the famous Botanic Gardens of Padua, which were established under the Venetian Republic in the sixteenth century.

Keep Down Price of Potatoes

Food Controller Warns Growers and Dealers That Consumers Will Be Protected

Higher prices for potatoes than you can afford to pay are not permitted. The food controller is sending a letter to this effect to all wholesale handlers of potatoes stating that any attempt to secure higher prices will be dealt with promptly. If retail dealers should attempt to charge an unreasonable profit on potatoes, the food controller is prepared to fix the margin of profit and, if necessary, to fix maximum prices. In a statement, Mr. Hanna said:

"A recent survey of the situation by this office indicates that there is still a large supply of potatoes in the hands of growers and dealers to meet a reasonable and heavy demand until the 1918 crop will be available. All handlers of potatoes should understand the situation clearly and realize that a special effort to keep the public plentifully supplied at reasonable prices is necessary, in order that the price of the large crop in the past season be maintained. Nothing can be gained by withholding supplies from the market, because higher prices will not be permitted and any attempt in that direction will be dealt with once by the food controller. The trend of the market is now towards lower prices, and the weather has made the movement of potatoes difficult. When spring opens it is anticipated that much of the surplus will come on the market."

Refused a Crown

The most famous refusal of distinction last year was that of Lord Stanley, afterwards Lord Derby, who in 1862, refused the crown of Greece, a decision which many Englishmen have since regretted, but never so much as during the last three years. If there had been a Stanley at Athens in 1915, the present of the Balkans would have been differently written, and the present would be infinitely more in favor of this country. Disraeli described the offer as "a dazzling adventure for the house of Stanley," adding "the Stanleys were not an imaginary race, and they would prefer Knowle to the Fonthamton and Lancashire to the Attic Plains."

Chief Causes of Impurity in Milk

Prof. Bred of Geneva (N.Y.) Experiment Station says the old idea that dust and dirt are big factors in introducing bacteria into milk is disproved. "I have found that the impurity is negligible. The greatest factor for introducing bacteria are, he says, unsanitary milk cans and equipment, improperly cleaned milking machines, garish in the cow and failure to cool the milk to proper temperature."

Bismarck's Book

An Unpublished Manuscript That
Would Startle the World

Can it be possible that Great Britain has in her hands a weapon more powerful than sword, rifle, grenade, or cannon which she refuses to use against the enemy who would chain all mankind as slaves to the Kaiser's military machine? There is no better proof that this question can be truthfully answered in the affirmative, and the fact reopens certain very interesting pages of history bearing on the present war, says the Rochester Union and Advocate.

The western world in question consists of the manuscript of the third volume of the memories of Bismarck, the iron chancellor, to whom, more than to any other man who ever lived, is due the unification of Germany and the growth of her power until she thought it strong enough to master Europe. It is a manuscript known to very few, but everybody knows that after Bismarck had for his devoted his great talents to the service of Germany and the Kaiser's family, the latter turned him out of office in his old age, with every circumstance of ignominy, and even made him a man of pauper status so that the ex-chancellor should publish facts in his possession that would set his case in the true light before the world.

Bismarck was a master of the pen, had a store of wit and humor, was familiar with several languages and had a marvellous memory, and had an unsurpassed knowledge of public affairs in the world during that important era in which he was the most masterful statesman in Europe. His published memoirs, the record of his sayings and actions during the Franco-German war, by the way of his achievements, are of great historical value. His memoirs suggest what an act of lunacy it was for the Kaiser to provoke the enmity of such a man. His dismissal by the Kaiser exasperated the veteran statesman to the utmost, and he determined to tell the world the truth about his autobiography in which he completed his autobiography in which he told the truth about his life.

It is said to detail the treatment of his parents by the Kaiser, with a frankness that shows the son in a most odd light. The author's report of this unusual conduct toward both his parents are the revelations of his intrigues against Austria and the house of Hapsburg, which are said to be of such a character that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria again. It was Bismarck's desire to publish the volume in his lifetime. But knowledge of its contents reached the Kaiser, and he threatened the author with such dire penalties that if they were made public, the Kaiser would never dare to visit Austria

General Local News of The Town and District

Readers Can Make This Column
More Interesting By Informing
The Editor of Events Occur-
ing Hereabouts

The Red Cross Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J.
Hamer, on Friday Feb. 15.

Mrs. L. E. Larder returned from Consort on Tuesday.

Sounding Creek hockey team will play the local team tomorrow afternoon. The puck will be faced off at 2 o'clock.

Alterations are now being made to the old harness shop,
and when completed will be occupied by Walter's Ltd, General Merchants.

J. A. Hayes & Sons have taken over the coal business from W. Gehrke. This gives them the Galt coal contract for this town. The coal sheds will be moved to the lots near the implement warehouse.

The Ladies Aid will hold a quilting bee at the home of Mrs. Houston, on Wednesday.

The westbound express got lost in a snow drift, yesterday,
and it was only about 9 hours late.

John Munson, who was a prisoner-of-war in Germany,
has been reported to have died,
in that country.

The Dinning Room of the local Hotel was closed, last Friday, and only sleeping accommodation is now provided.

Kirriemuir Red Cross

The Sec-Treas. of the Kirrimuir Branch C. R. C. S. wishes to acknowledge the following donations, received during the months of December and January: Rev. and Mrs. Cantion, $5;
L. Vert, $50; J. McKenzie, 1; Tea proceeds (given by Mesdames Robbins and Day) $25.00 For Convalescent Hospital, Ogden;
Messrs. Haywood and Rice, 1
turkey; G. T. Williams, 4 chickens; Mrs. F. Robbins, 2 chickens;
Mrs. F. W. Schon, 2 ducks; Mrs.
R. Mitchell, J. Airey, Mrs. M. E.
Ross, each a chicken.

Two months work, finished and shipped to Calgary: 11 suits
pyjamas, 36 pairs day socks, 50
pillow slips, 4 pairs bed socks, 4 triangular slings, 6 hot water bottle covers, 10 towels.

New members enrolled: Mrs.
J. Brunton, Mrs. M. N. Evans,
Miss V. Staples, W. H. Day.

The Food Controller says:

If municipal bylaws were relaxed, as a war measure, so as to permit suburban dwellers to keep pigs near their dwellings,
much might be accomplished.
Properly-kept pigs are no more unsanitary than are dogs. By "backyard" methods alone last year, Germany was able to raise 500,000 more pigs than Canada
possessed from coast to coast.

Fanning Mills Avery and Cushman Threshing Outfits

Monitor Cash Hardware

W. H. Olson, Prop.

All kinds of Table Dishes: Blacksmith Coal : Tar & Building Paper
Nelson Rotary Sewing Machines, on easy terms
Wall Paper : Linoleum : Rope : Oils : Gasoline : Buggies

Everything at lowest possible prices
Walk a Block and Save Money

Agent for Government Telephones
Full line of Chinaware and Crockery

FI-RE-CO RANGES - BARB WIRE

A full line of Skates, Hockey Sticks, Pucks, Etc.
Come in and see my stock of Springs & Mattresses

W. Dueckow left for Duncan, Ont., on Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Meiklejohn of Consort, spent the week-end with M. A. and Mrs. Vanhorn.

Hockey match at the rink tomorrow afternoon, at 2.

The 12th annual Alberta Provincial Seed Fair will be held in Edmonton, Feb. 18th to 21st.

This Fair is held for the exhibition, sale and exchange of farm seeds. Prize lists are now out and can be obtained from the Department of Agriculture, Seed Fair Branch, Edmonton.

Lake Superior Herring $8.00 per hundred. White Fish 13 in lb. by the 100 lb. Monitor Meat Market.

The Women's Institutes of Alberta are holding a convention in Edmonton March 6th,
7th, and 8th, at the MacDonald Hotel, and it is expected that there will be about eight hundred delegates present.

A very interesting program has been planned including some of our leading women speakers of the day, among them being Mrs. Nellie McClung
Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Edmonton
Dr. Helen MacMurphy, Toronto,
Miss Hazel Winter, Supt. of Institutes in New Brunswick,
Lieut. Roberta McAdams M.P.P.
for overseas, and Mrs. Jean Muldrew, director of domestic science in the Food Controller's Dept.

Owing to the high rate of infant mortality in Alberta the slogan for the Alberta Institutes
this year is "Save the babies".
Ways and means of perpetuating this campaign will be discussed.

There will also be other rural problems discussed and it is hoped that the convention will have definite results in making the life of the rural women as satisfying as that of her sister in the city.

All the delegates and members attending the convention are requested to purchase a single fare ticket to Edmonton and obtain from the ticket agent at the starting point a "Standard Certificate".

The twelfth annual convention of the Alberta Social League has been called to meet in Calgary on Feb. 19, 20 and 21
in Central Methodist Church.
This will no doubt be the largest and most important convention ever held by the League.

Insure your Farm Buildings & Live Stock
with the

Wawanese Mutual Ins. Co.

RATES $1.10 per hundred
W. S. McCulloch Agent

INSPECTION OF STALLIONS

LOST

1 Roan Shorthorn Cow, no brands, about 3 years old, calf at foot.
$10.00 reward for information leading to recovery.
N. P. Swanson S. E. 1/2 27-83-2
Wilhelmina, Alta.

Today's Market Report

| | |
|----------------------|------|
| Wheat—No. 1 Northern | 2.01 |
| Wheat—No. 2 Northern | 1.98 |
| Wheat—No. 3 Northern | 1.95 |
| Wheat—No. 4 Northerm | 1.90 |
| Wheat—No. 5 Northern | 1.70 |
| Wheat—No. 6 Northern | 1.60 |
| Wheat—Feed | 1.50 |
| Oats No. 2 C. W. | .87 |
| Flax | .25 |
| Barley No. 3 | 1.30 |

Get Behind the Wheel of a Ford and Drive

TRY it just once! Ask your friend to let you "pilot" his car on an open stretch. You'll like it, and will be surprised how easily the Ford is handled and driven.

If you have never felt the thrill of driving your own car, there is something good in store for you. It is vastly different from just riding—being a passenger. And especially so if you drive a Ford.

Young boys, girls, women and even grandfathers—thousands of them—are driving Ford cars and enjoying it. A Ford stops and starts in traffic with exceptional ease and smoothness, while on country roads and hills its strength and power show to advantage.

Buy a Ford and you will want to be behind "the wheel" constantly.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Runabout - $475
Touring - $495

F. O. B. FORD, ONT.

Charles B. Horsch -- Dealer -- Monitor